

Will provide an equal opportunity to other political candidates to participate in the same or a similar event.

- If Temple invites a candidate to attend or speak at a Temple-sponsored event as a non-candidate, Temple:

Will require that the candidate make remarks only in a non-candidate capacity;

Will not refer to the individual's candidacy or the election;

Will maintain a nonpartisan atmosphere at the event; and

Will clearly indicate the capacity in which the candidate is appearing and will not mention the individual's political candidacy or the upcoming election in communications announcing the candidate's attendance at the event.

- Political Action Committees (PACs)

- Temple will not make contributions to political organizations described in section 527 of the Internal Revenue Code such as candidates' committees or PACs.

- Distribution of Political Materials

- Temple will not distribute materials prepared by others that favor or oppose candidates for public office.

- Temple's Website and Website Links

- Temple will not post anything on its website that favors or opposes a candidate for public office, nor will it promote, encourage or recommend that viewers use an external link to obtain information about specific candidates or their positions; and
- Temple will take steps to ensure that external content which is available through links on Temple's website does not constitute prohibited political campaign activity.

- Public Policy Issues

- If Temple takes a stance on a public policy issue, including an issue that divides candidates for public office (as Temple is permitted to do), Temple will do so in a manner that does not favor or oppose any such candidates.
